

Overview of Dashboards

Tableau and MS Power BI Dashboards, Part I

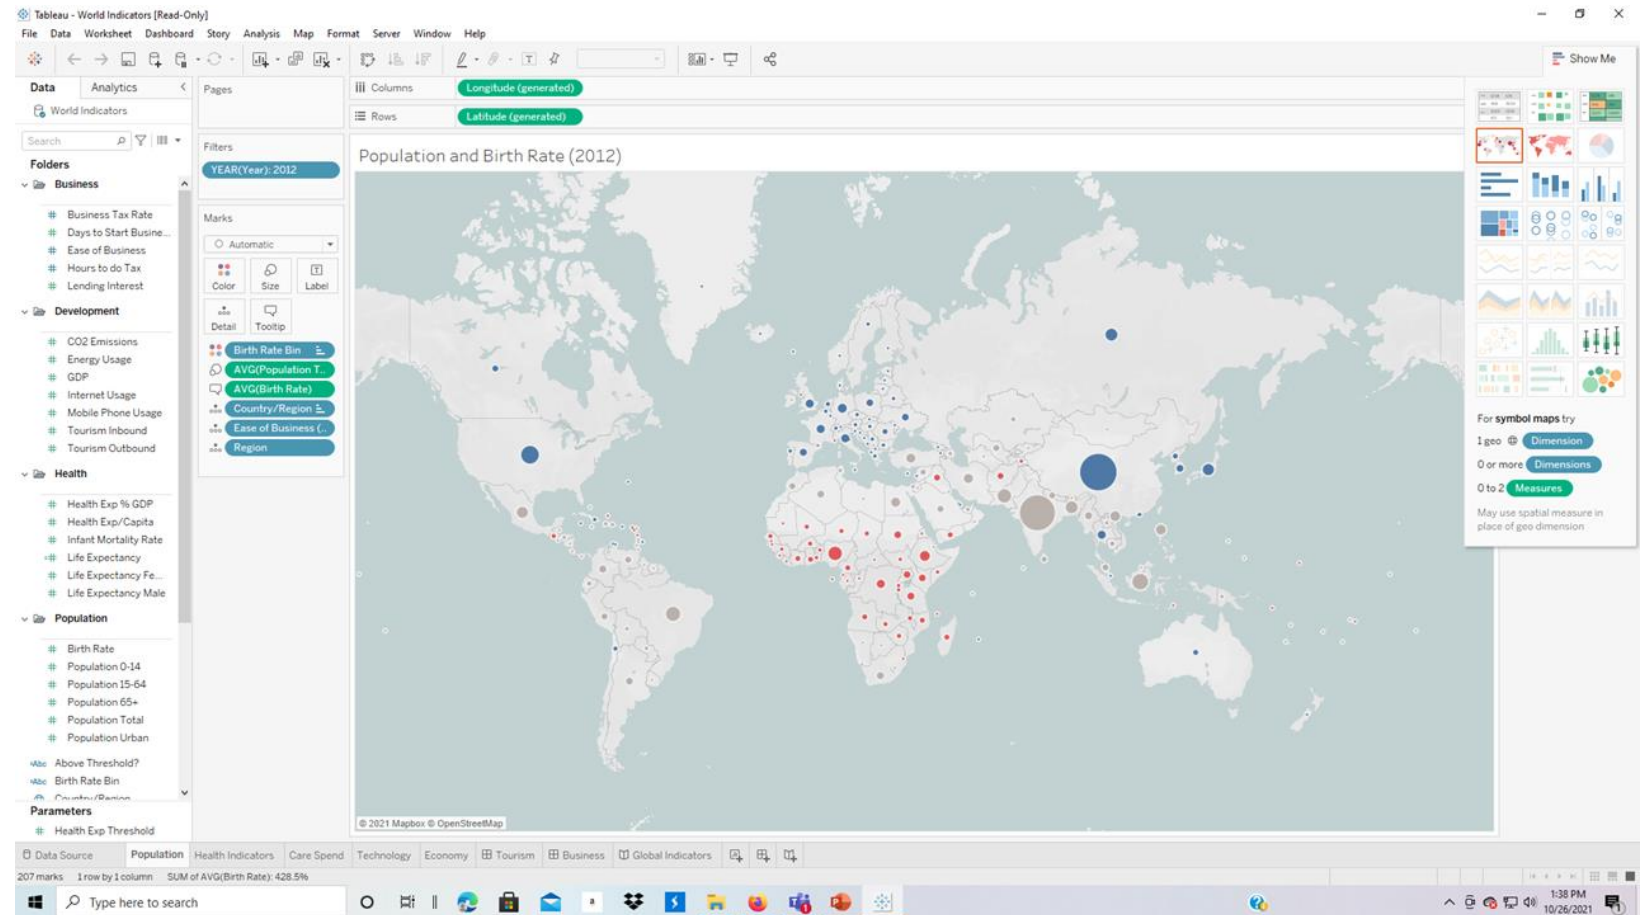

- Dashboards are a graphical user interface to quickly view key data for decision-making
- Examples of dashboard software include:
 - Google Analytics
 - Tableau
 - MS Power BI

Tableau and MS Power BI Dashboards, Part II

- Dashboards can:
 - Import diverse types of data from spreadsheets, text files, databases, PDFs, etc.
 - Build relationships between imported tables
 - Perform calculations to create new values
 - Refresh data to retrieve a new copy of the information

Tableau and MS Power BI Dashboards, Part III

- Dashboards can include:
 - Pivot tables
 - Bar charts
 - Column charts
 - Pie charts
 - Bubble charts
 - Geographic maps

Overview of Dashboards

The End

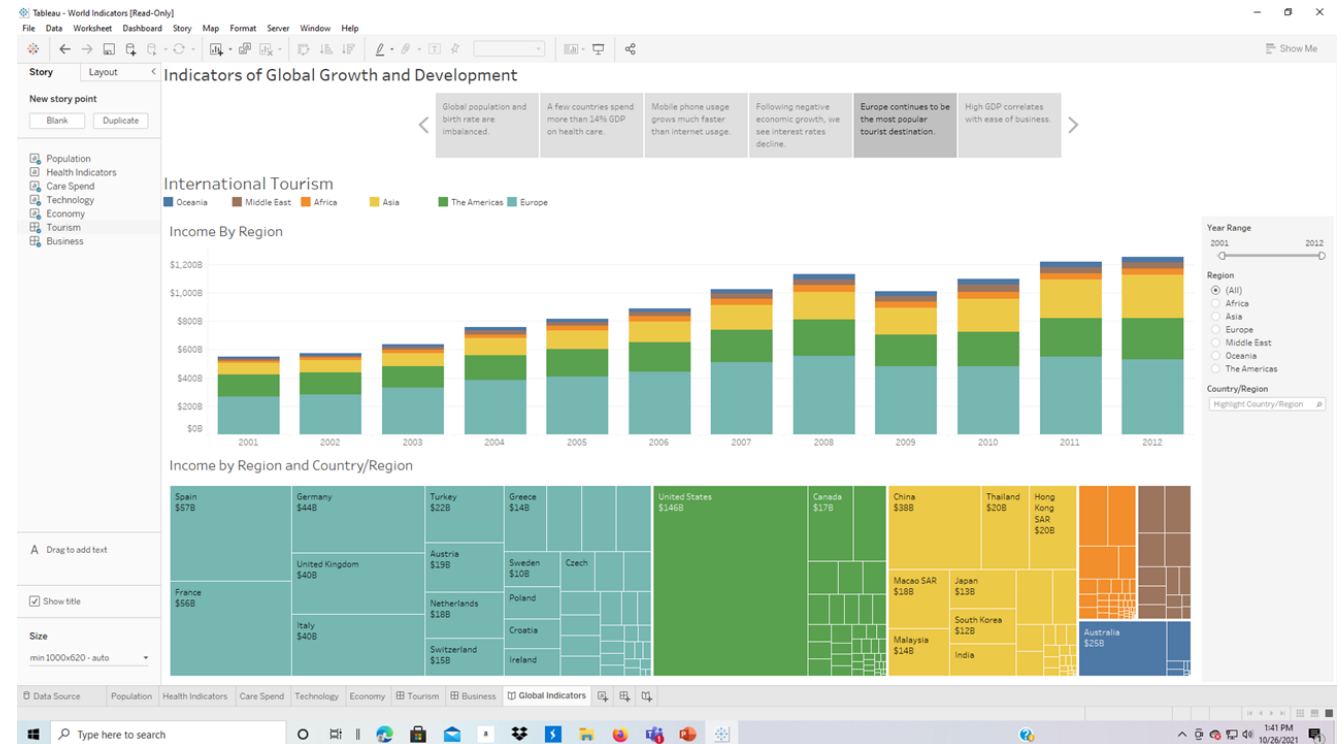

Tableau

Overview

Tableau

Tableau is a dashboard package which can:

- Import data from a variety of file types
- Create pivot tables
- Generate a variety of graph types
- Build worksheets, dashboards, and stories

Tableau

The End

MS Power BI

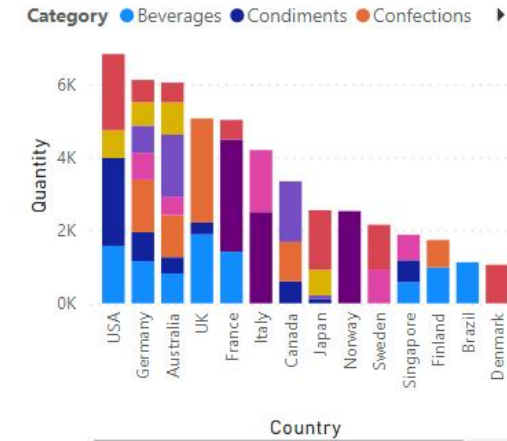

Overview

MS Power BI

MS Power BI is a dashboard package which can:

- Import data from a variety of file types
- Create pivot tables
- Generate a variety of graph types
- Build worksheets and dashboards

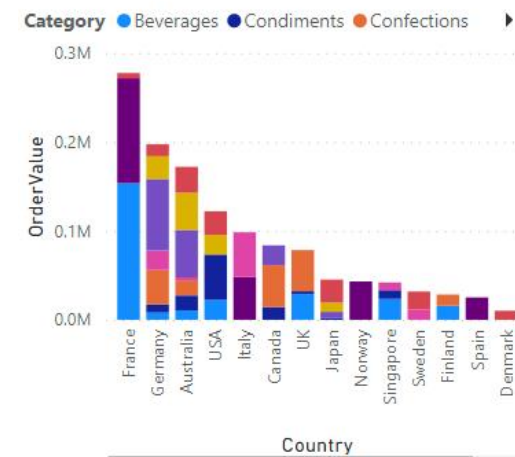

Quantity by Country and Category

Quantity by Country and Category

OrderValue by Country and Category

OrderValue by Country and Category

MS Power BI

The End